APPLICATION PROCESS

As an ambitious graduate, what do you want to achieve? What goals have you set yourself? What do you want to learn? At P&G we've got a strong track record of taking your raw potential and setting it loose on a range of challenging, high-profile projects that will ignite your career and supercharge your development. Read on to find out more about our application process and what you can expect at every stage.

APPLICATION

Here you'll upload your CV and ask a series of questions designed to see if you meet the initial qualifying criteria we're looking for.

ASSESSMENT

Through our online assessment we'll see if your experience matches our core competencies, plus you'll be asked to complete a short online reasoning test.

INTERVIEWS

This is where we really get the chance to know each other. Via behavioural, situational and one-to-one style interviews we'll want to find out more about your skills, capabilities and experience. You'll get the chance to see what we're like too.

OFFER

Congratulations, we can't wait for you to join us. Now that you're really starting, all you've got to ask yourself is, with opportunities like ours, what will you do with P&G?
