

We are

C4P develops cutting edge technology to generate intelligence about the EU procurement.

Our solution, the C4P Platform is currently used by some of the best companies in the world, that benefit by the powers of Artificial Intelligence to improve their business development strategy in the EU Public Procurement.

We offer

- A highly competitive salary
- An international startup working environment with real flexibility
- Opportunity to work in a highly competent team with an exciting vision in Artificial Intelligence

Contact us: andreas@c4p.io

You are

- Expert in Python and Django Framework (SQLAlchemy, model creation, API design)
- Able to work with Linux infrastructure technology and AWS
- Competent in relational databases, with expertise in PostgreSQL
- Familiar with ElasticSearch
- Familiar with Javascript frameworks and eager to deepen your skills
- Based in Athens, Greece

You do

- Maintain and evolve product architecture
- Drive the QA automation and DevOps pipeline
- Develop back-end as well as front-end modules
- Design / develop integration interfaces
- DB design, administration and tuning