

Site construction manager (m/f) for Fiber Optics projects in Germany

Main responsibilities

- Supervision of the project's civil works and scheduling of activities
- Review the provided network plans
- Supplies & warehouse management (materials, machines, equipment, etc.)
- Conduct on site investigations and analyze data (maps, reports, drawings)
- Assess potential risks, materials and costs
- Organize the set-up and transportations of the crew
- Ensure works are performed on time and with a certain quality
- Comply with guidelines and regulations including permits, safety, etc. and deliver technical files and other technical documentation as required

Candidate profile

- Bachelor's/Master's Degree in Civil Engineering or equivalent (must have)
- German speaker (must have)
- Ability to learn new technical knowledge and work in a high-pressure environment
- Understanding of networks and any other prior experience should be considered as a plus (as a plus)
- Advanced user of the Microsoft Office Suite and familiarity with drawing/GIS tools (as a plus)
- Ability to travel in short notice period (must have)

Remuneration

A competitive salary scheme and beneficial perks are provided for this position